

FACULTY POSITION IN THEOLOGY

Position:

One-year term position in Theology starting August 17, 2008.

Qualifications:

Ph.D. required; ABD considered. Previous teaching experience desired. Trinity seeks candidates for faculty positions who are professing Christians and committed to excellence in teaching, scholarship, and service. They should support the goals of a strong liberal arts education in the tradition of Reformed Christian higher education and be competent to demonstrate to students a mature articulation of faith and learning. Faculty members are also dedicated to personal involvement with students outside the classroom in advising, social interaction, and informal academic and cultural settings.

Responsibilities:

The candidate should have a strong biblical studies background with expertise in Systematic Theology, and will be expected to teach core sections of Old and New Testament survey courses, as well as at least one upper-level course. The candidate will be committed to a Reformed theological perspective and will be expected to adhere to the Reformed confessional standards and mission statement to which the college is pledged. In addition to teaching, responsibilities will include involvement in departmental activities.

Compensation:

Rank and salary commensurate with experience. Benefits include health insurance, pension, life insurance, and disability insurance.

Application Process:

All inquiries and requests for applications may be addressed to the Provost (see contact information below). The application form is also available at <http://www.trnty.edu/jobopenings/> and can be submitted electronically to provost@trnty.edu (electronic submission is preferred).
